

THE REPUBLICAN.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1864.

FARM FOR SALE.—A farm containing two hundred acres, situated six miles north of Plymouth, and two miles east of Tynes city, known as the Ashbhar Farm, can be bought at a great bargain, and on terms to suit the purchaser, if application be made soon to A. TERPAGHER, Laporte, Ind.

Attention, Farmers.

Hungarian Grass Seed, Clover Seed, Timothy Seed, Flax Seed, Red Top Seed, Kentucky Blue Grass Seed, Land Plaster, Corn, Oats, Wheat and Salt, for sale. I will also pay the highest wholesale market price in cash for each of the above articles. Office at C. Palmer's store. [18-4] H. G. THAYER.

Maj. Galbraith, of the 20th Ind., passed through this place yesterday.

Maj. Wade of the 73d Ind., who has recently been released from Libby prison, passed through this place on his way to South Bend, on Sunday last.

A member of the 73d has written home that that regiment has been ordered to join the Army of the Potomac. It is probably only a camp rumor.

PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS.—Pershing & Co. have the finest and largest assortment of Photograph Albums to be found in the place. Their stock embraces all qualities, from 75 cents up to $10.

Rev. E. Chapin has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to spend a few weeks in that region among the hospitals as agent of the Christian Commission. During his absence his pulpit will be occupied by Rev. Mr. Lusk, of Ohio.

Frank Leslie's Lady's Magazine and Gazette of Fashion is all its name imports. It is indispensable to those who desire to keep correctly posted in regard to the fashions. Price 25 cents per number or $5 per annum. Address Frank Leslie, 72 Duane street, N. Y.

LOST OR STOLEN.—A soldier's wife in this place either lost or had an English silver crown stolen from her a few days since, which she values very highly as a family keepsake, and would willingly give twice its value for its recovery. It was stamped Georgius IV, 1822. Any one having found it or received it in payment of goods will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office.

MUSICAL CONVENTION AND CONCERT.—The Musical Convention which is now in session in this place, is attended by some of the best vocal and instrumental performers in the North-West. Those who wish to enjoy a rich treat and spend a few hours most agreeably will of course attend! The concert of the members of the Convention give to-night at Woodward's Hall.

THE REGULATOR.—Where goods are sold at one price invariably, and that the very lowest, their cost will justify, and where the stock is always kept replenished by weekly additions, is now enjoying a large run of custom. The Doctor intends starting East in a few days to purchase his spring stock, and as he will take the cash along to pay with, he will, of course buy at the lowest figures and sell accordingly.

CHEAP STORE.—Dr. Calkins having purchased Mr. J. M. Dale's stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, &c., &c., has removed them to the room one door south of Pershing & Co.'s Drug Store, where he will be happy to see his old friends and all others who want to purchase cheap goods. His stock is large and new, and were bought just before the last big rise.

COMMITTED.—Joseph Vaukirk's examination on the charge of killing Niles McElrath, which commenced on Thursday last, was not concluded until late Saturday afternoon. He was remanded for trial for murder in the second degree, the Justice refusing to admit him to bail. There are differences of opinion in regard to the justice of this decision. We did not hear the testimony. The punishment for murder in the second degree, in this State, is imprisonment in the penitentiary for life; for murder in the first degree, either hanging or imprisonment for life, as the jury may find; for manslaughter, imprisonment for not less than two years or more than twenty.

THE NEW REGIMENTS, says the Indiana Journal of Tuesday, were turned over to Brigadier General Hovey yesterday, who will immediately get them in readiness and lead them to the field. They form a fine looking, and will prove themselves a gallant little army. The leader is the right man in the right place. There are none more able, braver, more popular with the soldiers. He will lead them where they can work for their country; no danger will stay him; yet he will care for them as would a father for his children. With such a leader the young Hoosier army will soon be as effective as veterans. We had hoped that a grand review of the troops here would be given before they were sent to the field, but as some of them will commence moving within a day or two this cannot be done.

PARSONS.—Job Work of all kinds, from the smallest card to the largest sheet poster, executed in the very best style, on the shortest notice and at the lowest prices. All orders respectfully solicited.

ATTENTION, BOURBON SHARPSHOOTERS.

You are hereby notified to meet at the general rendezvous at Bourbon, on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, March 19, for the purpose of receiving arms and equipments and for drill. All failing to attend, without a reasonable excuse, will be sent to the gallows. D. W. HAMILIN, Captain.

Good Cooks.—Ladies, if you would be known as good cooks, and would avoid the mortification of having poor biscuit for tea when you have company, use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus, and that only, and be careful when you buy to get the article in red papers, for there is a counterfeit put up in green.

PLYMOUTH MARKETS.

WEDNESDAY, March 16, 1864.
Wheat $1 18 to $1 20 per bushel, dull.
Corn at 60 a 75 cts. dull. Clover seed retails at $6 00 to $7 00. Flax Seed $2 00 to $2 25. Oats 50 to 55 cts. Potatoes 60 to 65 cts. Flour retails from stores at 34 cents per lb. Beef hides 74 cents per lb. for green; 15 for dry. Calfskins 10 cents for green; 16 cents for dry. Butter 25 to 30 cts. Eggs 15 cts. per doz. Maple Sugar 15c per lb. for a good article. Maple Molasses, $1 09 to $1 25.

WAGON AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY.

—Mr. A. P. Elliot, one of the best workmen in his line in Northern Indiana, is engaged in manufacturing wagons and carriages in South Plymouth. His work always gives entire satisfaction, and we are gratified to learn he is enjoying an extensive custom, having orders always ahead, notwithstanding he employs several hands. He intends as soon as he can procure more hands to manufacture still more extensively, and if possible get ahead of his orders.

Arrival of the 20th.

The noble old 20th Indiana, Colonel Taylor, came in yesterday about noon. Their arrival was greeted with the firing of cannon and many other demonstrations of joy by their friends. They were met at the depot by Gen. Carrington and a number of citizens, and escorted up Meridian street to Washington, and thence to the Soldiers' Home, by Hahn's band, cheering them with real Union music and Sweet Home airs. They made a fine appearance in their marching, keeping the step and carrying their guns with as much ease as though they were on inspection for admission to some honorable post. The men had all obtained new suits in Washington, which added much to their good looks, and made them feel reasonably proud.

Arriving at the Soldiers' Home, Gen. Carrington addressed them in a few pleasant remarks, bidding them welcome home, complimenting them on their soldierly bearing, &c., after which they stacked arms and went to dinner and quarters. They will have a reception, we understand, to-morrow. It should have taken place to-day, as the men had their furloughs all ready for the signatures of the proper officers last night, and are anxious to get home. But the ladies will have more time to prepare a dinner worthy the veterans.—Indianapolis Journal, 9th.

Release of Major White of Pennsylvania by the Rebels.

HARRISBURG, Thursday, March 10.—A private dispatch to the Clerk of the Senate, announces that Major White, late State Senator, whose absence made a lock in our Senate, is on his way from Fort Monroe to Baltimore. When released to the Senate, there were decided demonstrations of gratification, especially on the Democratic side. Republicans told them distinctly their demonstrations were hypocritical. Major White is released as soon as Mr. St. Clair is elected. The Copperheads make nothing by his detention. Comment is useless.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

Glorious Triumph of Loyalty.
CONCORD, N. H., March 11.—Returns are received from 220 cities and towns, leaving ten to hear from. The vote stands thus: Gilmore, 38,757; Harrington, 80,750. Gilmore's majority will be about 5,630. Four of the five Congressmen and nine of the twelve Senators elect are Union Republicans. The Union Republican majority in the House is about seventy-five.

From Idaho.

DENVER CITY, March 15.—Bankers direct from Idaho, who were fully prepared to buy gold there, deny that $15,000,000 await transportation. They could only buy a few thousands.
Discoveries are as yet quite limited. Stocks of gold are light, but merchants are selling in anticipation of large arrivals in the spring.
No mining was done during the winter, in consequence of severe weather.

BOOKS FOR THE CAMP FIRES.—No. 2 is ready. It is claimed to be the cheapest original work yet published. It contains 104 pages, minion, and 5 spirited illustrations. It is entitled: Clotel; or, a Tale of the Southern States, by W. W. Brown, a native of Kentucky. Price Ten Cents; for which it will be sent to any address, postage paid, by the publisher, James Rodpath, Boston. No. 3, a Tale by Balzac, "The Dickens of France," will be issued soon. On Picket Duty, by Miss Alcott. No. 1 of this series, has gone to its 21 edition. 7000 were sold in three days.

In a word, MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is the great Antidote to Colds, Coughs and Consumption, and its use will amply repay the confidence of the user. It has already done much, and is destined to do more, to mitigate, and finally banish from the human family, so terrible a scourge of suffering humanity as Consumption.—20c.

Destiny of the Nations.

A course of Lectures, on the "Destiny of the Nations or Gentile governments, and signs of the times," in which we are living, will be commenced at Concord Hall, in Plymouth, on the 22nd inst. at 7 o'clock, P. M., by Elder Richard Conoley. All, regardless of politics or theology, are invited to attend.

March 15, 1864.

JOB WORK.

ALL kinds of Job Printing executed in the very best manner, on short notice and most reasonable terms, at THIS OFFICE.

DIED.

In this place, on the 21st inst., Margaret, daughter of George and Margaret A. Rosenberry.

Dearest Maggie, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in the grave as low. Thou no more wilt join our number, Thou no more our songs shalt know.

Dearest Maggie thou hast left us, Here thy lonely bed has been laid, But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, There to dwell in bliss we shed.

In Green township, on Friday morning, March 11, 1864, James, infant son of Alexander and Malvina Newhouse, aged one year and 13 days.

Special Notices.

Roback's Stomach Bitters.

SOLDIERS' HOME.

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.

CINCINNATI, June 4, 1863.

To Dr. C. W. Roback.

MY DEAR SIR: I am dispensing a second invoice of your Stomach Bitters among the large number of men who daily resort to this institution for refreshment and rest. The universal testimony is that these Bitters are the best made. For the various summer complaints which afflict so many, I know of no remedy so safe and sure. Putnam says, "To ask a physician what is easy and what is hard of digestion, and what will agree with the stomach, is about as sensible as to ask what is sweet or bitter, or sour." Persons who look out for their health—and have your Stomach Bitters in the house—I am sure will never ask any one the foolish question spoken of by the great philosopher. I must not omit a word or two for your California readers. I have many men here who have been prescribed for them by distinguished Army Surgeons. The effects of yours on such are most beneficial, far more so than any previously taken. Persons who desire a really pure Brandy cannot fail to purchase if they purvey your brand, I am, Doctor, with much respect your servant,

G. W. D. ANDREWS, Superintendent.

Office and manufactory, Nos. 56, 58, 60 and 62 East Third street. For sale everywhere.

DISSOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.

SHIP.—The firm of BOLTEN & PLANT, in the Grocery business at Bourbon, Indiana, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, the said firm being dissolved in said business to James Plant, of Plymouth, who will hereafter carry on the business in connection with Bolton under the firm name of Bolton & Plant.

Bourbon, Ind., March 16.

J. B. BOLTEN, J. PLANT.
